THE LOCATION

StolenTime by Rendezvous is located on the north-west coast of St. Lucia, two miles from the capital, Castries and George F L Charles Airport (SLU) and one hour and fifteen minutes from Hewanorra International Airport (UVF).

THE RESORT

The site of the resort was once a vast coconut estate where over half a century ago St. Lucian Planter Dennis Barnard built his family home on Malabar Beach. Shortly thereafter, the house was extended to include twenty bedrooms catering to the transient commercial traveller and was named the Malabar Beach Hotel. Over the years the hotel grew and in August 1983 the Barnard family took out a franchise and the Malabar Beach Hotel became Couples St Lucia, an all-inclusive resort. In April 1993 the Couples franchise ended and the resort reverted to the direct leadership of Craig Barnard at which stage Rendezvous was introduced.

StolenTime by Rendezvous enjoys a stunning location. Walk along Malabar beach and enjoy two miles of soft white sand in which to sink your toes. Stop and listen to the Caribbean Sea gently ebb and flow, and listen to the sounds of the birds as they swoop and dive. The bar sits on the edge of the beach so settle down, sip your drink and watch the world pass you by.

At the centre of the resort is the 150-year-old giant Samaan tree; at night its huge branches are lined with tiny lights that cast a romantic glow and you can hear the tree frogs trill a lullaby while you sip your drink on the deck by the sea.
