

MODERN LUXURY

JEZEBEL

BEST of Atlanta
2024

Clockwise from top right: Enjoy an art class with the bachelorette package; bask in the amenities with your girls and get a facial; If you are looking for something more active, test your aim with an archery session; Step right onto the St. Lucia sands from your cabana.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF STOLENTIME

Put A Ring On It

NESTLED IN THE SERENE ENVIRONS OF ST. LUCIA, STOLENTIME RESORT (@STOLENTIMESTLUCIA) IS NOT ONLY THE PERFECT UPGRADE GETAWAY, BUT THEY HAVE EVERYTHING YOU NEED FOR THE PERFECT BACHELORETTE TRIP. BY MARY PEEPLES

Is it just me, or does it feel like everyone is getting engaged? Maybe it's just my age, but seriously, everywhere I look, I see a rock!! To this phenomenon, I say mazel tov. I will gladly shower the newlyweds with rice for good luck at the end of the big day; however, with that rock comes a whole lot of planning. While the bride chips away at each check box, there is more going on behind the scenes. Enter the maid of honor. This coveted yet underrated role requires that you plan the bachelorette weekend, a responsibility everyone gets excited about. Do you kick your boots all the way down Broadway in Nashville, or do you escape to the coast for a relaxing weekend with your besties? You are certainly in luck. StolenTime, a one-of-a-kind resort in St. Lucia, has the perfect mix of relaxing with all of the bachelorette amenities. This all-inclusive resort not only offers the breathtaking views everyone wants to wake up to, but it also has a bachelorette package, so all of the fuss of creating an itinerary is done for you. The "Bachelorette on the Beach" package ranges from facials to massages, fitness classes and personalized robes, so the maid of honor can also relax during the getaway. Everything they offer lends time for reflection and wellness, which is apropos considering this is technically the final girls' trip where you can truly be present and appreciate the friendships that surround you. StolenTime, as an adults-only destination, prioritizes destressing and emotional well-being before the big day. You'll barely lift a finger as you go from their BeachFit boot camp, ensuring you don't mess up the bridal diet you've embarked on, to the spa at the Water Garden, to going offsite to explore the island with your girls! Stealing this time away from reality will ensure you are refreshed when you hunker back down to planning with their mission to instill wellness and rejuvenation into every aspect of your stay. This tailor-made experience is not one to pass up, will relieve some of the planning stress off of the bridesmaids and everyone will bask in the paradise that is St. Lucia and StolenTime's luxury amenities. Not to mention, you are greeted with a toast of bubbly! Cheers!

